

June 2, 2003

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, 29 MAY 03
CONTACT: Cyntheia M. Pentiuk 734-281-7100

Local Attorney Holds Training Session at Annual Conference

Indianapolis--- Downriver Attorney, Randall A. Pentiuk addressed a group of attendees at the Midwest Association of Housing Cooperative's Annual Conference last week in Indianapolis. The session "Understanding Governing Documents" addressed several instrumental documents such as; Regulatory Agreements, Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation. Pentiuk, who is on the Board of the Midwest Association of Housing Cooperatives offered perspective for understanding Occupancy Agreements, HUD Use Agreements as well as the role played by Rules and Regulations within the Cooperative. The Midwest Association Of Housing Cooperatives (MAHC) represents member-owned housing cooperatives, throughout the Midwest. The association aids it's members by keeping the public educated and by stimulating the creation of new housing cooperatives for the purpose of perpetuating democracy in housing. Mr. Pentiuk, who has remained a staunch supporter of housing cooperatives throughout his career, is the managing shareholder of Pentiuk, Couvreur & Kobiljak, P.C.. He serves on several of the association's committees. His influence at MAHC has been beneficial in the helping the organization keep abreast on legal issues concerning housing cooperative communities. His Wyandotte based law firm represents several cooperatives as well as municipalities, businesses, and individuals in our area. Pentiuk also serves on the board of the National Association Of Housing Cooperatives (NAHC) located in Washington D.C.