

July 30, 2003

-For Immediate Release-

Re: Midwest Association of Housing Cooperatives Elect State Vice President for Michigan

Wyandotte, MI July 30, 2003 - The Midwest Association of Housing Cooperatives (MAHC) has appointed Downriver attorney Randall Pentiuik as the Vice President for Michigan for the 2003-2004 term. This is the second year that he has been elected for this position. Pentiuik has served on the Board of Directors for the past 10 years.

In accepting the position, Pentiuik is a traveling ambassador for MAHC. He will be responsible for the Public Relations issues in Michigan as pertains to the Association as well as acting as a liaison between the Association and local and state organizations. Many of the duties focus on gaining new memberships from professional organizations and cooperatives. It is important that this position works to plant the seeds of growth for MAHC and the satisfaction of the members.

MAHC is an association that focuses its efforts around housing cooperatives, which are member-owned, throughout the Midwest region in the United States. The ideas of cooperative ownership and the various issues that are associated with this type of housing are emphasized in the Association. MAHC is the leading advocate for cooperative housing in the Midwest.

While Pentiuik carries out his duties as Vice President, he also serves on the National Association of Housing Cooperatives (NAHC) based in Washington D.C.

As the Managing Shareholder of Pentiuik, Couvreur & Kobiljak, P.C. located in Wyandotte; Pentiuik represents several Cooperatives in the region. In addition to representing cooperatives, he also represents municipalities, credit unions, various non-profit organizations, and condominium associations.

Pentiuik and his wife, Cyntheia, currently reside in Riverview.

Please contact Meredith Phifer with questions at 734-281-7100.