Re: Randall A. Pentiuk Named Michigan VP Of MAHC for the 2005-2006 Term.

Downriver attorney Randall A. Pentiuk was named Michigan Vice President of the Michigan Association of Housing Cooperatives (MAHC) for the 2005-2006 term. The Association represents member-owned housing cooperatives throughout the Mid-West region of the United States. MAHC promotes the ideas of cooperative ownership, and serves as the leading advocate of this form of housing ownership. This is his fourth consecutive term, as well as serving on the Board of Directors for the past twelve years.

“I am astounded by the advancements being made,” Pentiuk stated, “and I am anticipating another outstanding year.”

Pentiuk also headed two seminars during this years annual conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada, along with associate attorney Jayson Hall. Among the topics they addressed were “Diversity Within the Cooperative Units” and “Legal Updates Affecting Cooperative Housing.”

“Randy [Pentiuk] did a wonderful job addressing these topics. I think our combined efforts made this an impressive seminar, full of excellent information.” said Hall.

Pentiuk is the Managing Shareholder of the Wyandotte based law firm Pentiuk, Couvreur & Kobiljak. He represents numerous cooperatives in Michigan, and also represents municipalities, credit unions, businesses and condo associations.
